FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AACF Annual Bob Schoeberl Memorial Charity Golf Tournament Foursomes Sell Out as Industry Support Continues to Grow

Sacramento, Calif. – October 15, 2026 – The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF) is pleased to announce that all foursomes for its 34th Annual Bob Schoeberl Memorial Golf Tournament are officially sold out, with more than 220 golfers expected to participate in support of aftermarket families facing hardship.

Taking place November 1–2, 2026, at Spanish Trail Country Club in Las Vegas, the tournament brings together leaders from across the aftermarket to raise funds for industry members and their families experiencing catastrophic illness, serious accidents, natural disasters and other life-changing hardships.

"We are incredibly grateful for the response from our industry," said John Kairys, Executive Director of AACF. "Selling out every foursome speaks volumes about the generosity of the companies and individuals who continue to stand behind AACF's mission. Their support allows us to provide meaningful assistance to aftermarket families when they need it most."

AACF proudly recognizes its 2026 Diamond, Platinum and Gold Sponsors for their generous support and commitment to helping industry families.

AACF also extends its thanks to the Event and Tee Sponsors whose contributions help make the tournament possible and provide vital assistance to families in need.

The weekend begins Sunday evening, November 1st, with AACF's Industry Cocktail Reception, featuring an open bar, hors d'oeuvres, live entertainment and opportunities to connect with fellow aftermarket leaders.

An exciting live auction begins at 6:30 p.m., featuring:

- Two tickets to the Daytona 500 in the Hendrick Motorsports Suite, including a $2,500 travel voucher, sponsored by Valvoline Global Operations
- An AutoZone Liberty Bowl Game & travel package including airfare for 2 and two nights at the Peabody Hotel, sponsored by AutoZone
- A DuraMAX Grand Prix NASCAR at COTA race weekend in Austin, Texas, including airfare and hotel for 2, sponsored by RelaDyne
- A Buffalo Bills helmet signed by reigning NFL MVP Josh Allen, sponsored by Castle Products

The excitement continues with AACF's Prize Drawing, featuring 20 incredible prizes, including the grand prize of a trip for two to Cabo! The drawing will take place during Monday's tournament luncheon, giving participants another chance to win while supporting aftermarket families in need. You do not need to be present to win.

Together, the live auction and prize drawing feature prizes valued at more than $50,000, with proceeds helping AACF provide emergency assistance to families throughout the industry.

Golf begins Monday morning, November 2nd, followed by the tournament luncheon, prize drawing and awards presentation.

While foursomes are sold out, companies can still participate through a limited number of Event and Tee Sponsorships. Event Sponsorships begin at $3,300, with opportunities to sponsor the golf luncheon, breakfast or course refreshments. Tee Sponsorships are available for $1,650.

Sponsorships provide recognition throughout the event and include invitations to Sunday evening's Industry Cocktail Reception. Companies interested in supporting AACF are encouraged to act soon, as remaining opportunities are limited.

About the Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF)
The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF) has been helping aftermarket families turn tragedy into triumph since 1959. Like the industry, AACF is driven by passion and devoted to family. It's tough to ask for help, but when someone in the aftermarket family faces profound circumstances, AACF is there when it seems like there's nowhere else to turn. As a nonprofit, this is accomplished through the support of generous donors, awareness partners and dedicated volunteers. To learn more, visit www.AftermarketCharity.org.
